LIGHT SPEED

Chapter 1 by bruh26

This is the early age of when the humans discovered light travel. I was chosen to go on the second light speed mission. The training was very intense. As humans technology advanced, research showed that the average second grade work is now seventh grade hard. As I step onto the ship, I feel butterflies in my stomach. Now, this ship was not an ordinary spacecraft. The craft was as alien as you could believe. After all, you should believe it because, we had an alien encounter. These aliens had showed us the way to discovering warping space-time. We now have a truce with the tribe. The mission was to visit them. As I am in space, something happens. We got pulled out of space time! It's the first order!
